Independent Visitor Program - Youth Justice Centres

The Commissioner for Aboriginal Children and Young People is looking for Aboriginal volunteers to join the Independent Visitor Program (IVP)

The Independent Visitor Program involves monthly visits by independent visitors to Victoria's youth justice centres in Parkville and Malmsbury. Independent visitors play an important role in independent monitoring and assisting children and young people in custody.

As a volunteer you will:

- visit Aboriginal children and young people in Youth Justice Centres
- help Aboriginal children and young people to resolve their issues
- be part of a supportive group of other Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal volunteers
- be available for one to two days per month
- receive a small fee to cover your expenses.
